

Elisa & Alexandre

Moodboard

Pre Party 04th of June
Old Paris Soirée / Black Tie

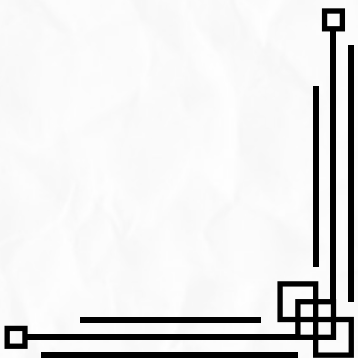

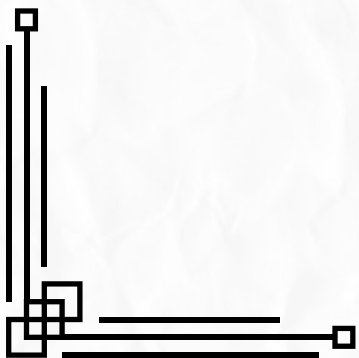

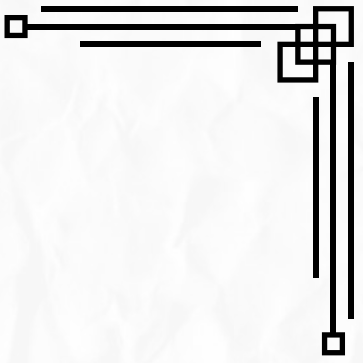

OFFICIAL DRESS CODE

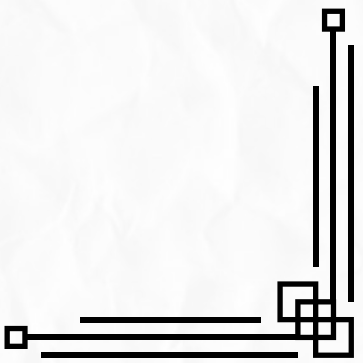

An evening inspired by 1920s Paris salons, couture elegance and refined decadence.

We invite you to embrace timeless silhouettes,
rich textures and understated luminosity.

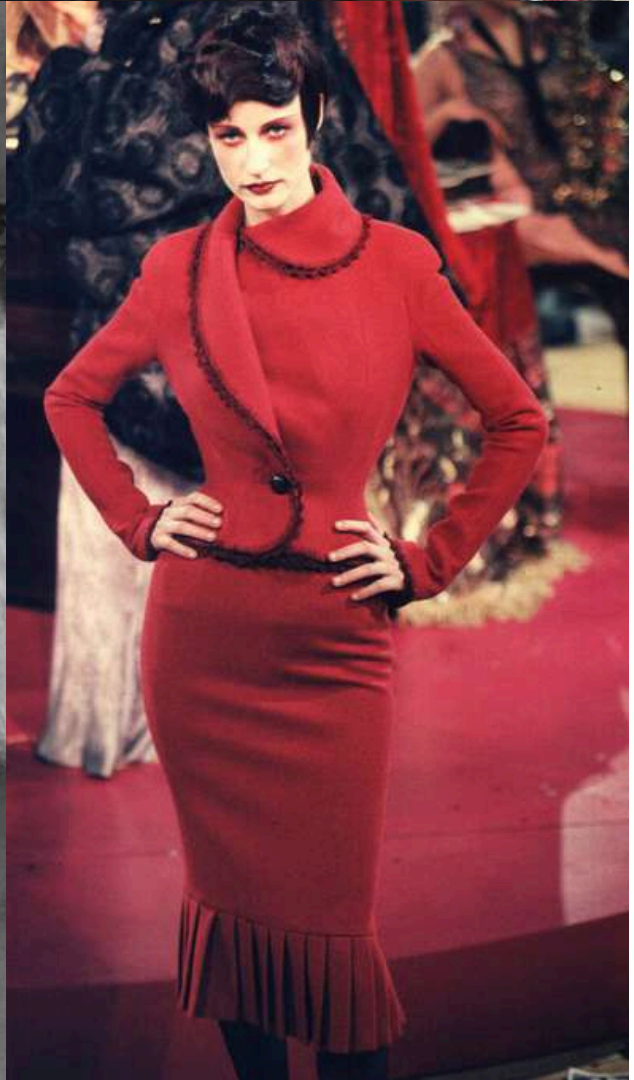

Women

MADAME BLOU
They may not be as big as the 1920s, but diamonds upon diamonds (especially with a shimmering focal) are still in vogue. Also, gold-tone, pearl, and diamond jewelry.

Do's

Long, midi or refined short silhouettes.

Velvet, silk, satin, chiffon, lace.

Gloves, pearls, delicate headpieces and elegant stoles are welcome.

Soft sheen and subtle luster are encouraged.

Dont's

White

Full silver looks

Neon tones

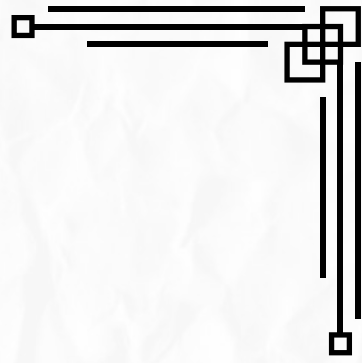

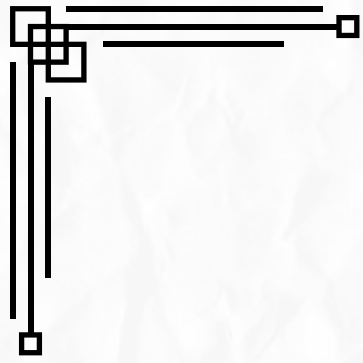

Bohemian styles

Overly costume interpretations

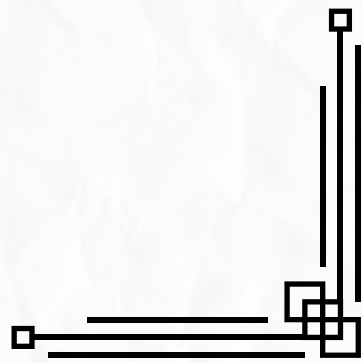

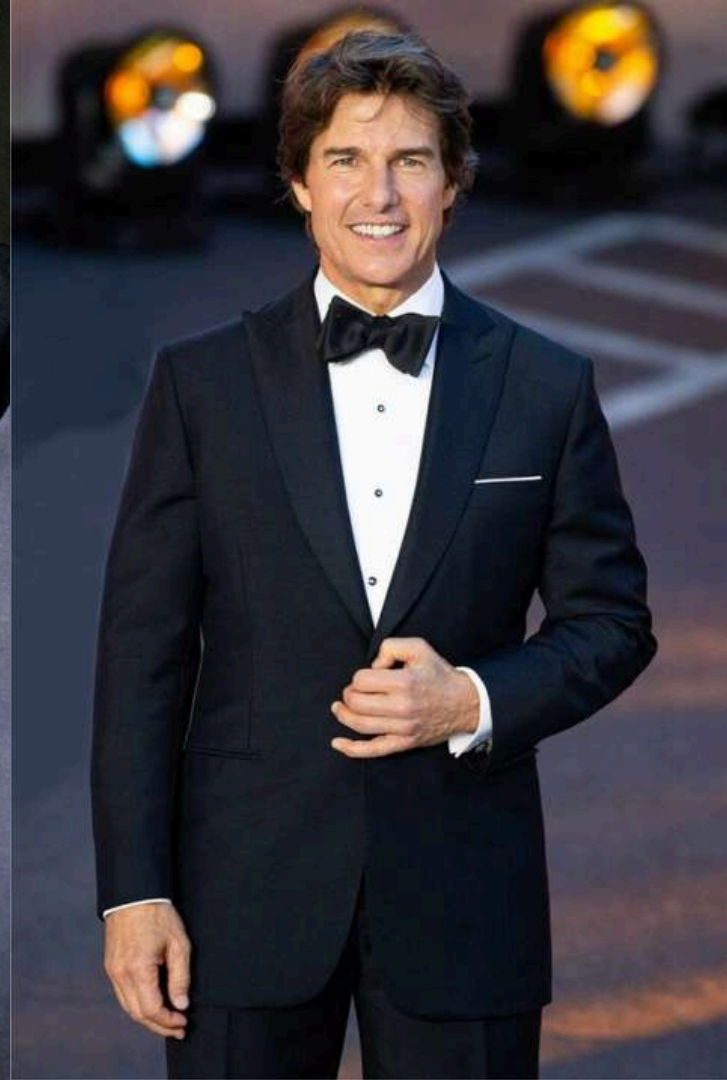

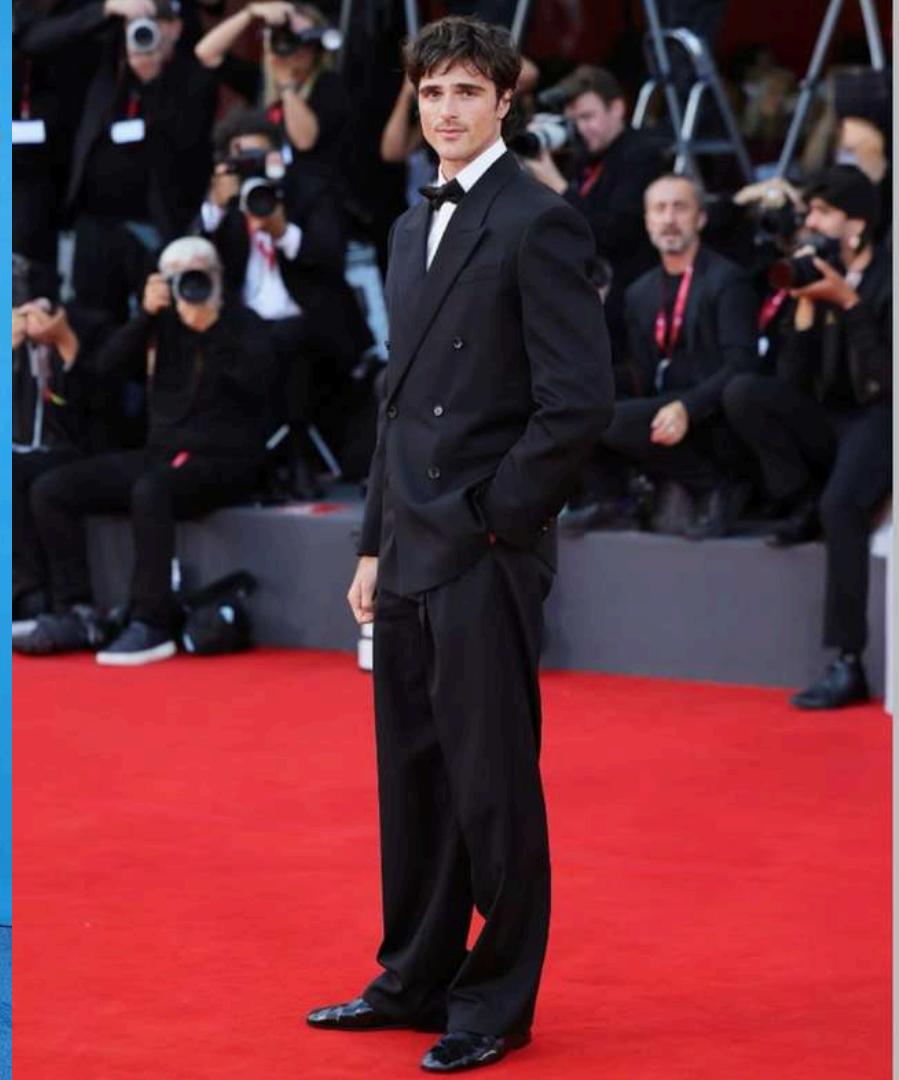

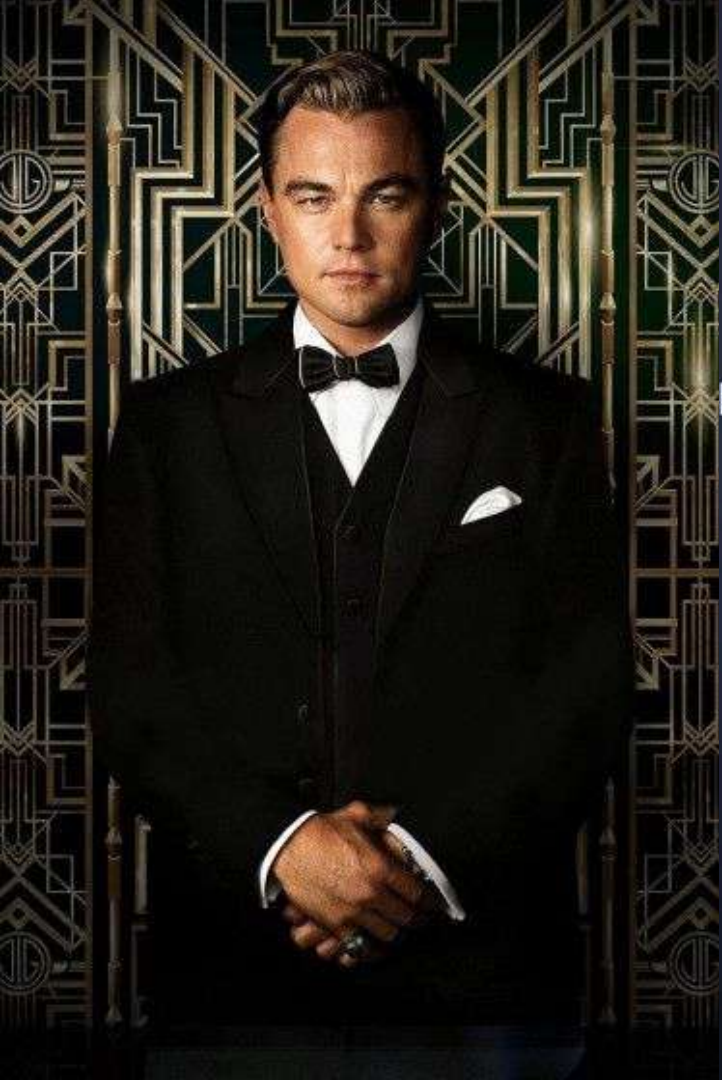

Men

Classic Black Tie

Do's

Classic black tie.

Traditional tuxedo in black.

Black bow tie.

White pocket square.

Patent leather or highly polished shoes.

Timeless, structured, elegant.

Dont's

No colored jackets.

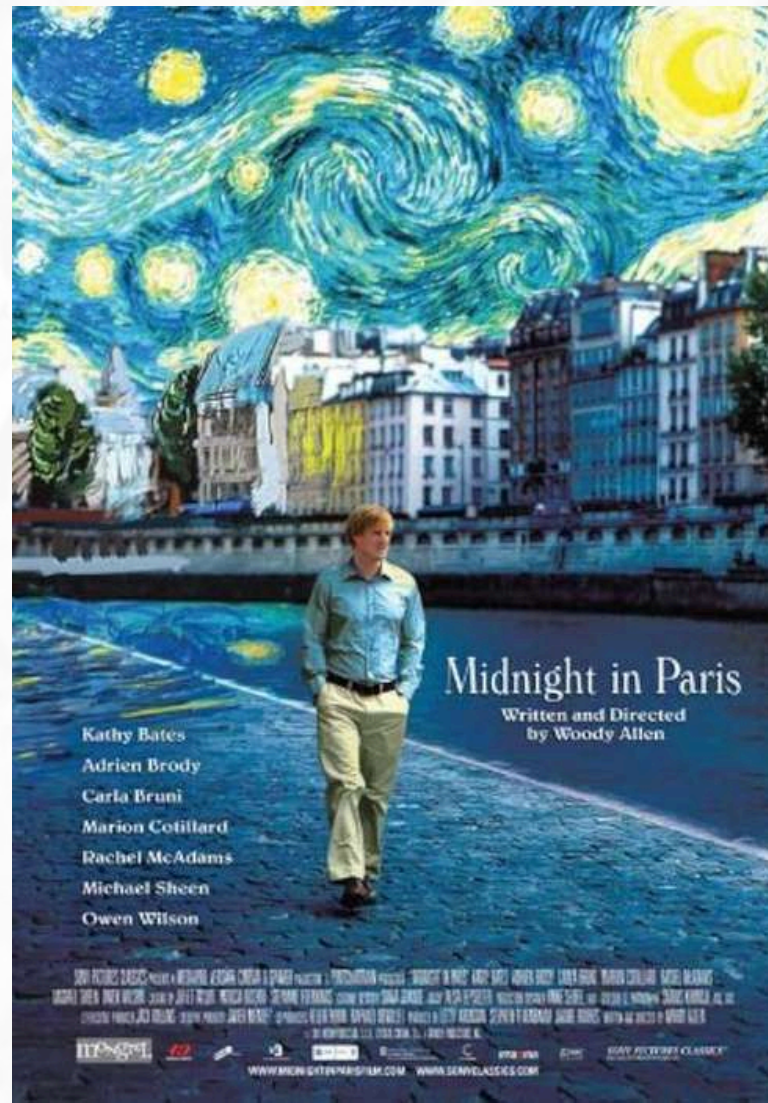

No velvet.

No creative interpretations.

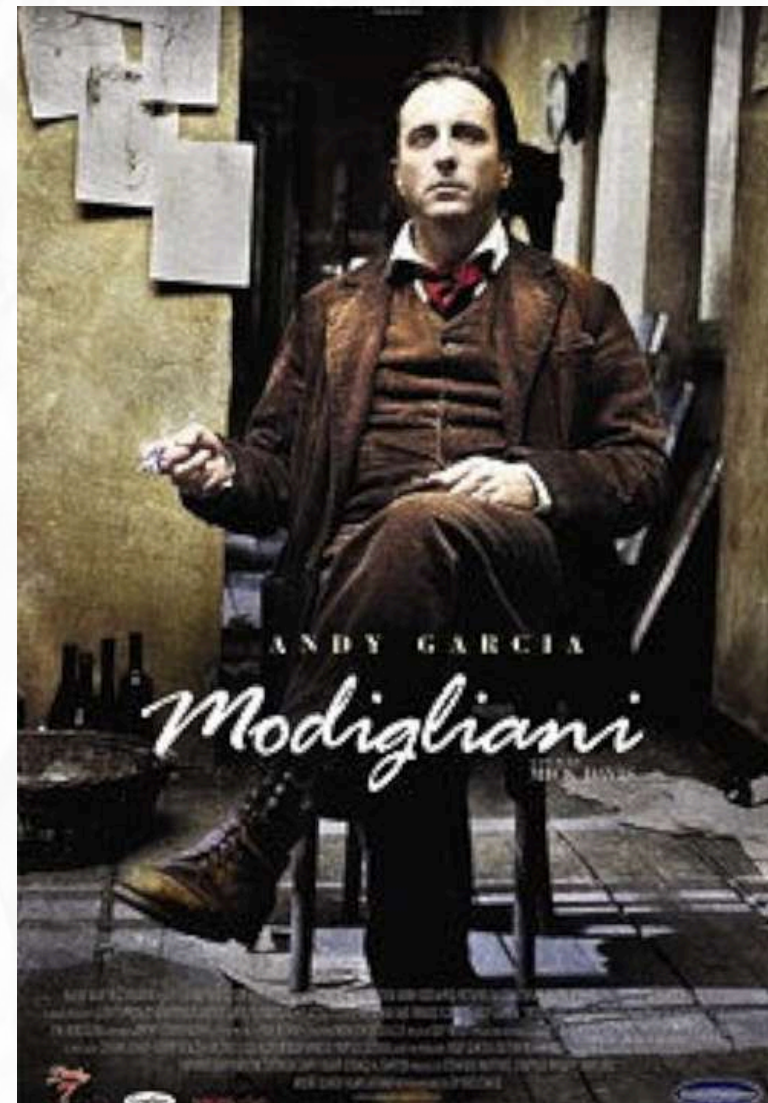

For inspiration

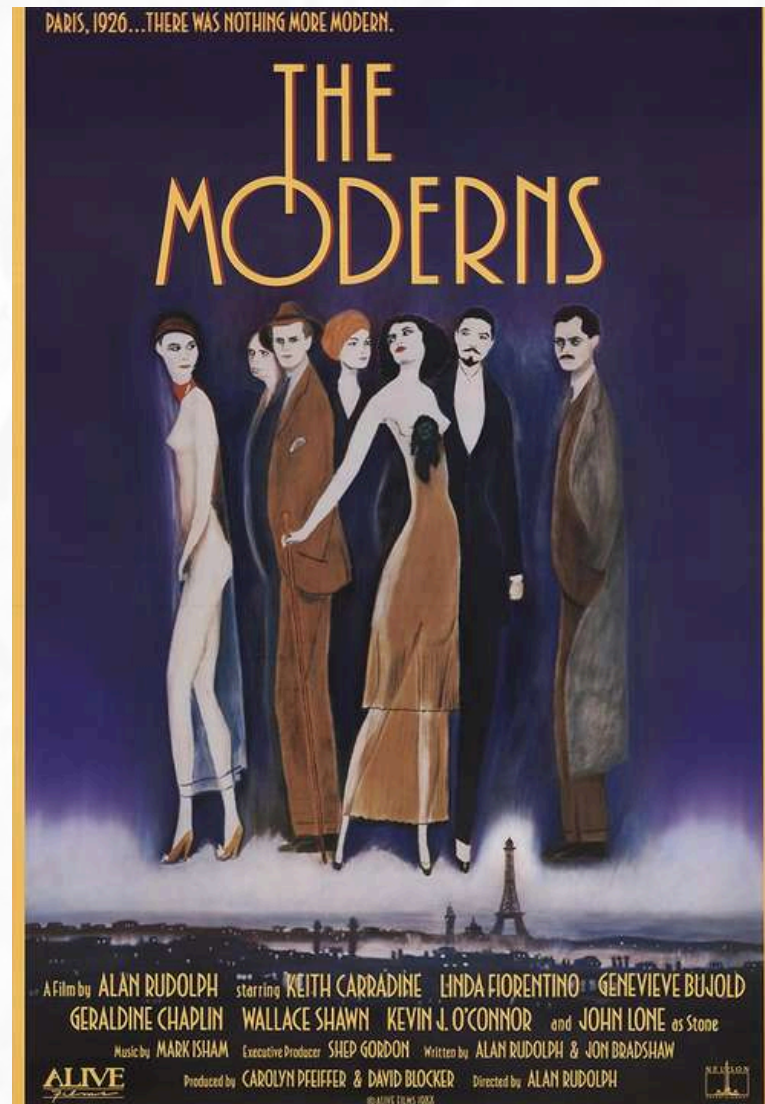

Midnight in Paris
by Woody Allen (2011)

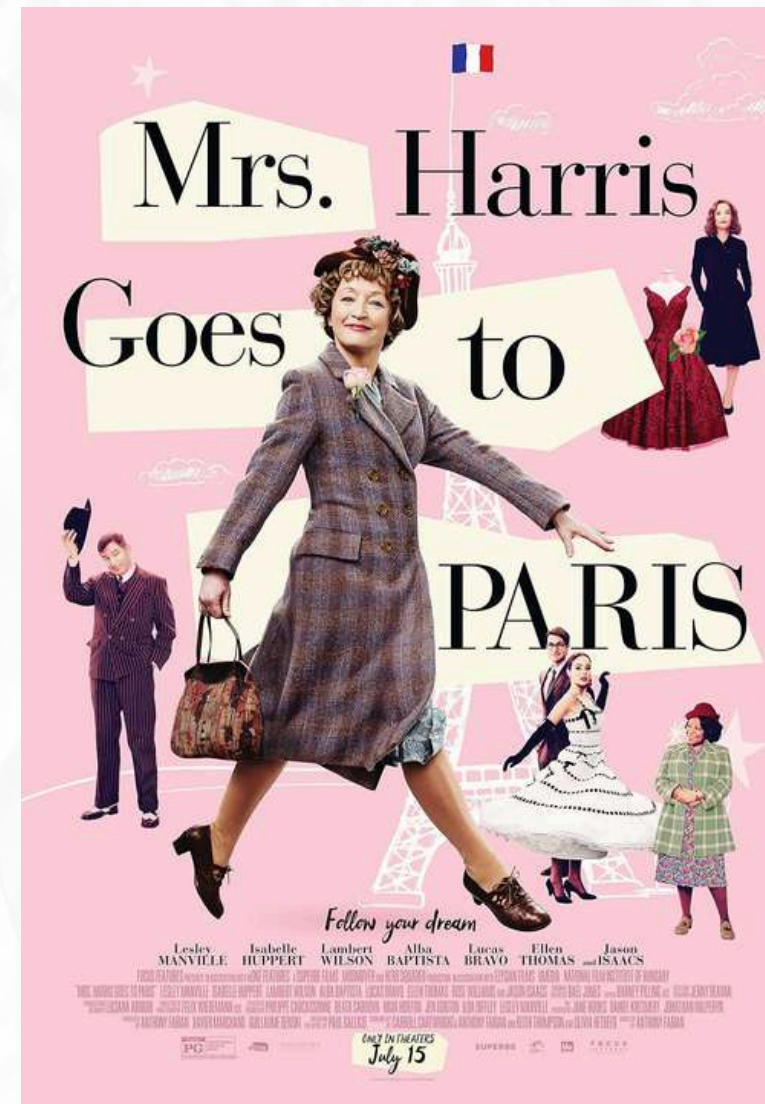

Modigliani
by Mick Davis (2004)

Coco Chanel & Igor Stravinsky
by Jan Kounen (2009)

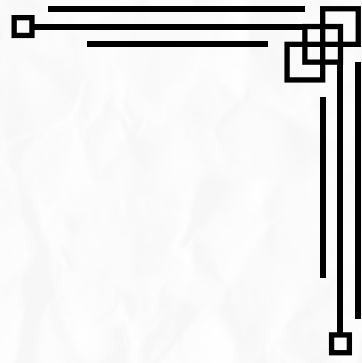

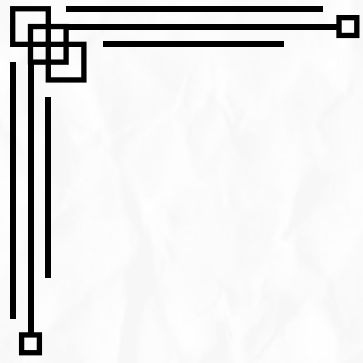

The Moderns
by Alan Rudolph (1988)

Mrs. Harris Goes to Paris
by Anthony Fabian (2004)

La Vie En Rose
by Olivier Dahan (2007)

Let's party!

